

<http://www.baires2012.org/>

The Challenges of Oral History in the 21st Century: Diversity, Inequality and Identity Construction.

BUENOS AIRES

4–7 September 2012

The International Oral History Association, IOHA and the Asociación de Historia Oral de la República Argentina, AHORA, invited/s you to participate in the XVII International Oral History Conference: "The Challenges of Oral History in the 21st Century: Diversity, Inequality and Identity Construction.", to be held in Buenos Aires from 4 to 7 September 2012

Abstracts: The call will be open from 1 July to 1 October 2011

Abstract Acceptance: November 15, 2011

Final submission of papers: March 30, 2012

The organization of the conference enabled from the first of July 2011 a form for submitting abstracts / papers.

Sub-temas

Heritage, museums and Oral History.

Archives and places of memory

Archiving Memory. Methodologies - Interviewing and the material preservation of memory

Places of Memory: management of the past from the present or the battles for memory.

Oral History and audiovisual images

Words and images in the construction of memory: Photographies, audiovisual resources and screenplay

Soundscapes, Recreating the Sounds of the Past.

Theory, method and the teaching and learning of Oral History.

Legal and Ethical Dimensions of the Practice of Oral History.

Teaching and learning Oral History

Health Oral History.

Health Management, Disabilities and Geriatrics.

Gender, memory and politics

Permanent Scars of Violence in Memory: Gender Violence, Femicide, and the Reconstruction of the Memories of Victims of Violence.

Body Politics: The Construction of Gender Identities, and Sexual Identities.

Queer Theory and Transgender Studies.

Memories, politics and militancies

NGOs Political Groups, Political Agency and Individuals. The construction of the Feminist Movement

Memory, Oral History and dictatorships Research on Living Under Dictatorship/Totalitarianism Oral History and the world of work Individual and Collective Perceptions of the World of Work: Unions, Factory, and Gender Control in the Workplace.

Territorial social organizations and workers' self-management Oral History and Economy Businessmen, businesswomen, companies and Oral History Individual and collective perception of the economics process: companies, businessmen and economic policies.

Memories of the "Other economies"

Co-operative movement, social, solidary and participative economy, self management. Recuperated enterprises by his workers.

The Wounds of Economic Crisis in Memory: Memory, Welfare, and Economic Crisis.

Ecology and Environment: Natural Heritage and the Social Effects of Major Natural Disasters.

Memory and trauma Human rights violation. Citizenship and the Re-Signifying the National Space: National Identities, and the Fight for Citizenship Rights.

Memories of survivors of war, terrorist attacks and genocides.

Art, culture, memory and Oral History

The Pleasures of Memory: Artistic Expression and the Representation of Memory.

Working class culture, art and politics Migration, Exhile, Disaporas, and Borderlands.

Internal migrations, migrations from neighbouring countries, diasporas and exile Natives people, memory, politics and Oral History Culture, traditions and identities.

Stories of resistance: colonialism, racism and exploitation. Current fights: territory, autonomy, education.

Memory, Oral History and community Teaching and learning narratives, educative experiences, school life.

Family and intergenerational exchange.

Maternity, Paternity and the Transmission of the Cultural Heritage.

Shared Beliefs, Religious Traditions, and the Oral Transmission.

Non-hegemonic cultures and Oral History

Tradition and Memory: Communities, Histories, Heritage and Traditions.

<http://www.baires2012.org/>