

2011–2012 CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR Curriculum Research Fellowships

Application deadline: 3 October 2011

The Central European University's (CEU) Curriculum Resource Center (CRC) is launching a new call for applications for its year-long Curriculum Research Fellowship. CRC invites applications from scholars (higher education researchers and teaching faculty) from the region to investigate specific questions related to social science curricula and curriculum design practices in former communist countries.

Application is restricted to resident citizens of Eastern- and Southeastern Europe, the Former Soviet Union and Mongolia. Citizens of new EU member countries are eligible only if they participate in comparative group projects with colleagues from non-EU countries.

If you are interested to apply for this fellowship grant, please read the attached call for Proposals and fill out an application form. You can also access these documents and read more about the fellowship at the project's webpage: http://web.ceu.hu/crc/crc_resfel.html

In case you have any questions please write to Matyas Szabo, CRC Director, at crf@ceu.hu
