

The Chronicle of Historical Studies (CHS), formerly the Red River Valley Historical Journal, invites the submission of articles for publication in upcoming issues. Articles are solicited on any historical topic, era, or geographic region of the world. The CHS publishes articles of general interest to the academy.

Articles should be 7,000–12,000 words in length. Authors are required to send two typed, double-spaced copies of the manuscript to the address below. A self-addressed, stamped envelope should be included if the manuscript is to be returned. The author's name, mailing address, email address and telephone number should appear on the title page and nowhere else in the manuscript. Notes should appear as endnotes using the Chicago Manual of Style. Once the manuscript has been accepted for publication, authors will be required to provide the CHS an electronic copy in WordPerfect or Word's Rich Text Format (RTF).

For inquiries on articles assignments, please contact the editor.
