

The Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna

28.–30.10.2010, Wien

Deadline: 22.02.2010

"Cultural Changes in Central- and South East Europe after 1989"

CALL FOR APPLICATION

The Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna, is organizing The Young Scientists Forum (YSF) on Central- and South East Europe

Aims of the project:

- Motivation and reinforcement of young scientists to engage in the regions of Central and South East Europe;
- Presentation of research projects for the public;
- Promoting exchange of information and creation of networking;
- Promotion of mobility;
- Publication of the contributions.

Target group:

Young scientists dealing with Central and South East Europe in the fields of cultural studies, history, comparative literature, European ethnology, media studies, political sciences, geography and sociology.

Date and location:

The symposium will take place in October 28-29, 2010 at the Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna.

Programme:

- Lectures by high level experts and young scientists;
- Presentation of research papers/projects prepared by the participants;
- (Plenary) discussions;
- Social and cultural programme on October 30th.

Applications:

Applications for participation may be handed in by e-mail by February 22, 2010 and should include a CV and an abstract (1 page) of the research project/paper that shall be presented and discussed at the symposium.

Costs for travel expenses and accommodation will be granted by IDM.

Language: English and German (German speaking applicants can submit their applications also in German language).

http://www.idm.at/projekte/young_scientists_forum_ysf/Young-Scientists-Forum-YSF-on-Central-and-South-East-Europe--a859.html

Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM)

Ms. Gejsi PLAKU

E-mail: g.plaku@idm.at

Tel.: +43-1 319 72 58-24