

The 10th International Conference

Exploring Culture: Consumption, Organization and Communication
May 17-18, 2012, Kaunas, Lithuania

<http://www.exploringculture.khf.vu.lt/>

Rapid changes in the world raise new challenges for culture forcing it to follow principles of economic laws. The purpose of the conference is to communicate research results and future research ideas, discuss about culture as an interdisciplinary object from the perspectives of philosophy, communication, technology, management, economics, education etc.

We invite researchers and practitioners, representatives of cultural and creative communities, art and business organizations as well as those who are interested in cultural issues and are keen to participate in an open scientific discussion.

For the 10th annual conference, in addition to the theme of the conference as set above, papers are invited to address the following topics:

Theoretical Approaches to Contemporary Cultural Philosophy

- Culture and Consumption
- Culture and Education
- Socio-Cultural Processes and Media
- Globalization, Culture and Technologies
- Cultural Communication
- Culture and Gender
- Cultural Organizations
- Culture Management

Conference Language: English. Presentations take 30 minutes.

Conference Venue: Kaunas Faculty of Humanities at Vilnius University, Muitines str. 8, Kaunas, Lithuania.
