

<http://www.coleurope.eu/template.asp?pagename=jobs&sub=20110323a>

Research Fellowships at the College of Europe, Natolin (Warsaw) campus

The College of Europe, Natolin Campus (Warsaw) is seeking applications for the position of two 6 month Post-Doctoral Research Fellowships with a starting date of June 2011. The post will be created within the framework of the "EP-Geremek European Civilization Chair" founded by the European Parliament in honour of the late Professor Bronislaw Geremek.

We are looking for graduates with:

- A doctorate, preferably in History,
- A demonstrated interest in the field of recent European history with a special focus on "Europe in the 20th century: from division to reunification",
- A proven track record of research in the area of recent European history,
- A very good command of English and French.

Tasks include:

- undertaking research activities leading to high level scientific publications,
- contributing to the activities of the EP-Geremek European Civilization Chair,
- providing academic support for students undertaking a Master Thesis related to recent European history and European civilization.

The College offers:

- an excellent academic setting,
- a six month contract under Polish law,
- an international working environment.

Candidates should prepare a research project of maximum 5 pages related to recent European history, with a special focus on Europe in the 20th century.

E-mail applications in English, comprising detailed curriculum vitae, letter of motivation and two letters of reference, should be submitted by 10 April 2011 via e-mail to:
geremek-chair@coleurope.eu