

Opportunities for PhD study in the School of Slavonic and East European Studies (SSEES),

University College London

Applications are now open for PhD study at SSEES. For further details see <http://www.ssees.ucl.ac.uk/prospect/gradrsch.htm>

AHRC Doctoral Competition (for students working in the Arts and Humanities): SSEES is able to offer 3 MPhil scholarships in the AHRC Doctoral Competition for Slavonic Studies for 2011 and is also accepting applications under History. Deadline for receipt of a copy of the admissions application and statement of intent to apply at SSEES: 1 March 2011.

ESRC Doctoral Open Competition (for students working in Economics and the Social Sciences):

Deadline for receipt of application at SSEES: 1 March 2011.

UCL Scholarships (open to all UCL students): Deadline for receipt of application at SSEES: 1 February 2011.

SSEES Foundation Scholarship (one three-year entrance scholarship awarded annually) : Deadline for receipt of application at SSEES: 1 March 2011.

Victor and Rita Swoboda Memorial Scholarship (for SSEES students working in Ukrainian Studies): Applicants for these awards must also apply to study in the Department before the funding deadline: 1 March 2011.

Applicants are strongly advised to contact the department to discuss their proposal in advance of the deadline.

Any enquiries regarding these awards and Postgraduate study in the Department of Russian and Slavonic Studies should be addressed to Professor Julian Graffy, j.graffy@ssees.ucl.ac.uk