

Summer course on

"LIVED SPACE IN PAST AND PRESENT" —

Central European University, Budapest in cooperation with the Koszeg European University Institute

We would like to solicit your help to promote the summer course on "LIVED SPACE IN PAST AND PRESENT" among your colleagues, your graduate students, or any interested researchers.

Course Dates: 21–27 June, 2010

Location: Central European University (CEU), Budapest, Hungary,

Detailed course description:

http://www.sun.ceu.hu/03-application/howto_apply.php

Course Director:

Katalin Szende, Central European University, Medieval Studies Department, Budapest, Hungary

Faculty:

Sarah Rees-Jones, University of York, UK; Peter JohaneK, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster, Germany; Rossina Kostova, University of Veliko Turnovo, Bulgaria; Anngret Simms, University College Dublin, Ireland; GAbor Gyani, Central European University, Department of History/ Eotvos Lorand University, Budapest, Hungary

Target group: This summer school encourages applications from doctoral students, post-doctoral researchers or practicing professionals. An MA degree or its equivalent is the minimum requirement; preference will be given to doctoral students, post-doctoral researchers or practicing professionals.

Language of instruction: English

Tuition fee: EUR 550. Financial aid is available.

Application deadline: February 15, 2010

Financial aid is available.

Online application (from November 20):

www.sun.ceu.hu/03-application/howto_apply.php

We'd be grateful if you could forward this email to those potentially interested in our summer school (individuals, listservs, blogs, electronic journals, etc.) and/or have a short announcement placed on a relevant web site.

Thank you for your kind assistance.

Sincerely yours,
CEU Summer University Program team