

6th Silk Road International Conference

“Globalization and Security in Black and Caspian Seas Region”

will be held in 27-29 May, 2011 in Tbilisi, the capital city of Georgia to discuss the following issues:

- 1) Security and stability policies, anti-terrorism policy, conflict resolution policy
- 2) Globalization and Economics, business and globalization, business management and services
- 3) Tourism development
- 4) Education, development of education, globalization in education
- 5) Culture and Cultural Identity, Cross-cultural relationships
- 6) Development of Healthcare, globalization and healthcare

The scholars and researchers as well as politicians and businessmen willing to participate in the symposium should register on the conference web-site and upload a 150 word summary/abstract of their paper no later than 1st March, 2011. Working language is English, please send abstracts in English language. The scientific committee will evaluate all the summaries and selected ones will receive the Final Invitation.

No registration fee. Participants will meet international transportation and accomodation expenses by themselves. Local transportation will be provided. Many cultural programs, banquets, and amazing sightseeing are the part of the conference.

For more information please visit our web page.

Salavat Sayfullin

International Black Sea University

Tbilisi/GEORGIA

Phone: (+99532) 595005

Email: silkroad@ibsu.edu.ge

Visit the website at <http://silkroad.ibsu.edu.ge/index.php/silkroad/silkroad6th>